All these industries are equipped with modern processes and all the firms take ample precaution for the welfare of their employees in the provision of rest rooms and canteens etc.

INFECTIOUS DISEASES.

The return of notifications of Infectious Diseases for 1947 shows a marked increase over last year, the cause being the accustomed biennial rise in cases of Measles and to a lesser degree of Whooping Cough, both of which diseases were prevalent in the Spring and Summer months.

Scarlet Fever notifications showed little change; the prevailing type was mild, but all cases were removed to Hospital.

The most satisfactory feature was the complete absence of Diphtheria and Acute Poliomyelitis.

DIPHTHERIA IMMUNISATION.

The following table sets out the number of children immunised in the district, together with the figure of the total child population:—

I am,

Medical Officer of Health.
